*Dear Extension Partner,
Please help spread the word on this upcoming program. Forward this email to anyone you know who might have an interest. That could be someone within your agency or clientele/farmers/landowners that you work with. While we have programs that reach gardeners and naturalists, there are many we won't reach with our announcements. Your assistance is appreciated; you are welcome to post on social media.---James Quinn, Field Specialist in Horticulture, Jeff City*
