Subject: FW: Actual Cost Database - New SharePoint Link

We have been requested to forward the following information from Lauren Cartwright regarding the Actual Cost Database – New SharePoint Link.

All:

The transition to the new SharePoint site for hosting the Actual Cost Database is complete.

Please let all potential users know that the new address for the Actual Cost Database is: <https://usdagcc.sharepoint.com/sites/fsa-states-mo/actualcost/default.aspx>.

All of the data that was entered already has also been migrated so there is no need to re-enter any data.

Also, the issue with not being able to enter extents with a decimal has been corrected.

I have updated the User Manual with the new link (attached).

Thanks to everyone for your patience through this transition.

Please continue to bring issues and concerns to my attention so we can make improvements as needed.
