Good afternoon,

With the potential lapse of government funding that could occur at midnight tonight, I wanted to remind you that all staff need to report to the office tomorrow morning as normally scheduled. If no budget/continuing resolution has been passed by Congress and signed by the President, we will initiate an orderly shutdown. More information, guidance, and direction will be shared at that time, for both staff and partners.

Obviously, if a budget is passed, we will operate business as usual.

Thanks,

Nate Goodrich
Acting State Conservationist
