Subject: RE: Leopold Conservation Award

The Soil and Water Conservation Program has once again partnered with the Sand County Foundation in honoring a local farm with the Missouri Leopold Conservation Award. This prestigious award recognizes extraordinary achievement in voluntary conservation. Joshlin and Addie Yoder of Leonard were chosen this year to receive the $10,000 cash prize and Aldo Leopold crystal. To learn more about the award and these dedicated land stewards, visit the Missouri Farmers Care website <http://mofarmerscare.com/lca/>.

Thank you.
