

2024 Summer Internship Opportunity

The internship will be from approximately May 1 through September 1, 2024 for a maximum of 500 hours. The pay will be $15.00/ hour.

Duties & Responsibilities:

The position is designed to provide hands on learning environment to help make career decisions while mentoring with SWCD boards, staff, and state and federal conservation partners. The students will perform the following duties:

Assist with or perform soil conservation duties such as assessing resources in the field, recording accurate field notes, assembling maps and other related work.

Assist field office staff with development of conservation plans and planning associated conservation practices.

Assist in program and conservation planning for a variety of practices as cover crops, grazing management, woodland exclusion, seedings and erosion control structures.

Work Environment:

This position includes both office and field work. Successful candidates will work as part of a local team as well as independently, be able to traverse rough terrain on foot, spend time outdoors in the summer months, able to work with the public including landowners and customers, work in extreme temperatures or inclement weather as required, work around equipment and complete work in a timely manner.

Must be a higher education student attending a college, university, technical school etc. Students must be in good academic standing, as defined by the institution they are attending, and must meet definition of a student throughout the duration of their internship appointment.

Please respond by April 19, 2024