

Chambers wins State Educator of the Year

The Bates County Soil & Water Conservation District would like to recognize Jennifer Chambers as the 2021 Educator of the Year. After receiving the Educator of the Year award at the Bates County level, Mrs. Chambers then was chosen as the Missouri Association of Soil & Water Conservation Districts (MASWCD) Area 4 recipient. At the state level, Mrs. Chambers was presented with the State Educator of the Year Award at the MASWCD Annual Awards Banquet held during the district's training conference that was held at Margaritaville, Osage Beach, MO, on November 29, 2021.

Mrs. Chambers teaches 7th to 12th grade Science, is the archery coach and Envirothon coach at the Ballard School District. She is in her fourth year of teaching at Ballard where she is reported to be an amazing teacher who continually goes above and beyond for her students. Mrs. Chambers is innovative in the classroom, coming up with new and exciting ways to engage her students. She has been an extremely important addition to the faculty from day one. Since coming to Ballard, she has become a member of the school leadership team and continually works to not only improve her teaching, but the school as a whole. Congratulations Jennifer!
