

NOTICE OF ELECTION OF SUPERVISORS

HARRISON SWCD BOARD ELECTIONS

Let it be known that the Harrison County Soil and Water Conservation District will hold an election for one supervisor in each of two different territories in the county. Territory II includes Colfax, Clay, Marion, Madison, and Grant townships and Territory IV includes Trail Creek, Sherman, Fox Creek, Adams, and Sugar Creek townships. The election will take place from February 2 to February 20, 2026. Ballots are available to print online at <https://mosoilandwater.land/Harrison>. Printed ballots may be returned to the district by mail and must be postmarked no later than February 20th. You may also vote in person from 7:30 am to 4:30 pm at the Harrison County Soil and Water Conservation District Office, located at 1400 N 41st st, Bethany, MO. Each eligible land representative in the district is allowed one vote. A land representative is defined as the owner or representative authorized by power of attorney of any farm lying within an area proposed to be established, and subsequently established, as a soil and water conservation district under Chapter 278, RSMo. Each farm is entitled to representation by a land representative: provided, however that the land representative is a taxpayer of the county within which the soil and water district is located.

The following qualified candidates will be considered for election:

Territory II – Marvin Harding from Grant township

Territory IV – Ross Oram from Sugar Creek township

Supervisors manage the administration of district policies and programs, as well as district personnel and funds. The district is supported by the one-tenth-of-one-percent parks, soils and water sales tax.
